SYDNEY OPEN AMC
SERVICE CHAMP'S
ANZAC RANGE, NSW
SUNDAY 6 APRIL 2008

Hosted by SSAA SYDNEY BRANCH Inc, RANRRC and ALPINE HUNTERS CLUB.

 Non AIHPA members (SSAA, ASRA, NRA and other) and NEW shooters WELCOME ***

Introduction: This is the 1st running of the AMC in Sydney by SSAA Sydney, but is being run by very experienced campaigners nonetheless. This CoF is one of the oldest official service rifle courses of fire for service rifle target shooting. This course is run at the long standing Tamworth Open, and is run by all Australian Service Rifle Assn clubs around Australia. The difference with this event to most service shoots, is every type of rifle is welcome, and encouraged to participate. Every centrefire rifle enthusiast should not miss this event – something for everybody.

7.30am sign on. Please ensure you sign in at the SSAA range office prior to entering range & handling firearms. PROCEED DIRECTLY TO THE SERVICE RIFLE RANGE 300m MOUND.

Day Outline: This event is shot on a range with a pits target system. Shooters will be broken up into details. During matches, one detail will be shooting while another will be scoring. Remaining details will be operating the targets in the pits and targets plus spotting shots and assisting where ever possible. Everybody will be required to “do their bit”.

Rifle Specification/Classes: Note: ALL rifles, of any spec, must have an operating magazine. Rifles are forwards compatible, i.e. Spec 1 can be used in Spec 3 etc. This discipline has something for everybody.

Spec 1 & 1a: Service - Standard Iron - Any issued iron sights service rifle in original condition – zero modifications.

Spec 2: Service - Modified Iron - As above, or faithful reproduction, modified beyond spec - service calibre.

Spec 3: Match - Match Iron - Any commercial, custom or service rifle, of any calibre, with iron sights.

Spec 5 & 5a: Service/Match – As per Specs 1, 2, or 3 but fitted with optical sights.

Note: Shooters may be permitted to cross enter in up to max 2 rifle specifications/classes – time depending only.
